

Maheswary Velautham Memorial Committee Invites you to a Meeting

Commemorate the Life and Work of Human Rights Activist

Miss Maheswary Velautham, LLB

Who was brutally assassinated (gunned down) at her family home in Karaveddi, Jaffna, Sri Lanka on 13 May 2008

Sunday 13 July 2008

from 11.30 a.m. to 5.00 pm

at the

Conway Hall

25 Red Lion Square,

London WC1

(Nearest tube: Holborn)

Speakers from Sri Lanka and the Diaspora including

- Professor Tissa Vitharana - Minister, APRC Chairman, Sri Lanka
- Ingrid Massage - Amnesty International, UK
- Nissam Kariyapper - SLMC, Sri Lanka
- Mr Varathakumar - Tamil Information Centre, UK
- K P Chandralal - Forum for Human Dignity, Sri Lanka
- Teresa O'Donoghue - Art of living, India

And others.

'Maheswary Velautham was a powerful voice, an able lawyer, a dedicated human rights activist, a humane social worker, a religious humanist, a modern rationalist a remarkable philosopher, an excellent orator and a unique writer. She was a literateur who dedicated herself to clear conscience'

- Dr. T. C. Rajaratnam

Rsvp: mageswarymemorialcommitee@googlemail.com